Kyle Vick Announces Lieutenant Governor

Senator Kyle Vick of Waco has formally announced his candidacy for the post of Lieutenant Governor, basing his campaign on service to the people of Texas.

Vick has announced previously that he would be a candidate for the office but announced Saturday he would start a personal campaign over the State which would carry him to every county before the july primaries.

In making his announcement Mr. Vick said, "I offer to the people of Texas that I will be fair to every person in the discharge of duties of the office, being in the position to do so through my experience as presiding officer of the Senate while that body was actually in session", Vick said.

The Lieutenant Governor's major duty, while the Senate is in session, is to weild the gavel over that body so that every Senator may have an equal chance to be heard, Vick said.

Seator Vick served as elected president pro tem of the Senate during the stormy 51st Session.

No one holds the office at the present time, Gov. Allan Shivers vacated the office last July at the time he took the Governor's chair following the death of the late Gov. Beauford Jester.

Senator Vick is the oldest Senator, from point of service, in the race for the office, having served continuously since his election in 1941.

Senator Vick was born in McLennan County in the farm home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Vick of Moody. He lived a short time in Bell County where he entered grade school but removed to Waco as a youth and has lived there since.

He is a graduate of Waco High and attended the University of the South at Sewanee, Tenn., and the University of Texas Law School.

Senator Vick was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1915 and has remained as a practicing attorney in Waco for the past 35 years .

He served as Assistant District Attorney of McLennan County for two years and was appointed County Judge of a newly created County Court at Law in the same County. He served in this position for six years from 1927 to 1933.

In 1940 he announced his candidacy for Senator of this district and has served as such since.

Record of Wage Earner Should Be Properly Completed by Employer

Retirement and family insurance beenfits under the Social Security Act are based on the wages received and the time spent by each worker in covering employment, James B. Marley, manager of the Austin Social Security Administration in Austin, explained.

"A record of each wage-earner's salary payments is kept from the reports which employers send in with social security taxes four times a year. Since the beenfits which a worker or his dependents will get are based on the worker's wage record, it is essential that his wages be correctly reported.

"Accuracy in recording the wages is made possible through the use, by employers, of the exact name and correct account number of each worker as they appear on his social security card."

Mr. Marley urges all employers to keep faith with their employees by reporting their wages properly. This applies to all workers whether they are full time ,part time, or temporary. Employers are helping to pay for the protection of their workers when they get old and for their families when they die. Properly completed reports assure getting value received for social security tax payments.

1950 MILK BOWL GAME PLANS BEING FORMED

Negotations are nearing completion for the filming of a commercial movie based on the 1950 Milk Bowl game. A Dallas producer has requested story material on the Bowl.

Chambers of Commerce in Texas will soon begin making nominations at their local Peewee teams for consideration next fall by a committee of sports editors and the Milk Bowl, Inc. The selected team will, it is planned, meet Red Grange's Chicago Champions. The expense in bringing this team, the most famous in the nation, will be largely underwritten by block purchase of tickets, in advance, by the Chamber of Commerce sponsoring the selected Texas team. The Chicago team wants no cut in the gate, but specifies that the profits of the game be used for a worthwhile social or philanthropic project.

A committee of seven from Cameron and Milam County will handle all administrative functions, and the Gause Board will rule on matters of policy only.

It is expected that the Chicago team will bring; Red Grange Movie tone news, NBC Radio tie-up and national news service reporting. The game may be played sometime during the Christmas holiday season or on New Years day. The game may be coveerd by rain insurance to guarantee a profit, in the event of a damp day.

RAINFALL ENDS DRY SPELL IN SECTIONS

Heavy thunder showers pelted South Central Texas for the first time in many weeks.

WATER TOWER BEING CONSIDERED FOR CITY

In reply to a letter from L. Van Perkins to Paul H. Brown, Fire Insurance Commissioner at Austin, Mr. Brown states that if the City of Cameron erects a new elevated water tank, it should be not less than 350,000 gallons in capacity.

The tank should be installed on a tower of a minimum height of 100 feet from the ground level to the bottom of the tank.

If such a tank is erected, the charge of 1c now appearing in Cameron key rate will be avoided as well as the possibility of an increase in this penalty following the next inspection when the increase in population would have to be taken into account. So it would mean the addition of another 1c penalty when the increased population is given consideration.

DAN TYSON SEEKS SECOND ELECTIVE TERM

Dan Tyson announced today that he is a candidate for a second elective term as county judge, subject to the action of the Democratic primary in July.

Mr. Tyson is a native of Milam county, was born and reared at Maysfield. He is married and is the father of two children. His only son lost his life in action during World War II.

Prior to his appointment as Judge, Mr. Tyson was connected with the city government of Cameron as assessor and collector, city auditor and city secretary and treasurer, resigning the later place to become county judge. He was also a member of the Cameron school Board for several years.

During World War II Mr. Tyson served as Milam County Chairman for the sixth, seventh and eighth war bond campaigns. In 1942 he was county chairman for the Navy Relief Fund. He resigned as county chairman for the United States Savings Bond Division to devote full time to official duties. Mr. Tyson is a frequet speaker before luncheon clubs and other organizations.

With the commissioners and delegations from various sections of the county, he has frequently appeared before the State Highway Commission to urge additional road and highway improvements for Milam County.

In making his announcement Mr. Tyson said, "I'm glad to report to the people that Milam County's financial condition is very good. While costs of equipment, materials and all supplies have risen tremendously, your tax rate has not been raised. According to the county auditor the net debt was decreased $55,000.00 in 1949. The net debt represents less than 1% of the current assessed valuation.

Milam County's financial position is above the average in that in these days and times of rising prices it can keep its tax rate below 80 cents and continue to decrease its debt.

I am profoundly grateful for the unusual cooperation of friends from all sections of the county. I am asking the people now for a second elective term as county Judge and will appreciate your support at the primary in July. In exchange for your endorsement of by candidacy I promise the same service in the future as I have endeavored to render during the three and one half years that has been my privilege to be your county judge."

Mailbox Face Lifting Important Project

Most of us insult our most constant visitor to our farm homes. Our mailman, 300 times a year stops at delapidated mail boxes, hanging askew from rotting posts with names either completely obliterated or faint and smudged .

Not only does our mailman deserve the consideration of uniform mailboxes, neatly lettered and firmly set up level to his car window, but our pride in our community is important.

Mailbox improvement is really a matter of individual pride, but through the efforts of Home Demonstration Clubs and other community clubs in Alabama and Tennessee, country roads and highways are taking on a straightened air, in keeping with neat farm homes and green pastures.

In an article "How Does Your Mailbox Rate", in the February issue of Farm & Ranch-Southern Agriculturist, L. R. Neel, senior Editor, delivers a pat on the back to these communities who have taken steps in the right direction of mailbox improvement ,and gives specifications for large and small boxes to those of us who are still neglectful.

Editor Neel says, "Small boxes should be 48 inches from the ground, and large boxes, 60 inches. Small boxes should be placed on 6-inch square posts and large ones on posts 8 inches square."

How does your mailbox rate?

TEXAS GETS HALF OF ALL COTTON HIKES

KEY WEST, Fla., March 31—President Truman, bombarded by telegrams for and against it, today signed a controversial measure increasing cotton planting this year by 1,200,000 acres.

The bill—which also increases the acreage that can be devoted to peanut growing this year—was signed at 3:15 p. m. (CST) at the "Winter White House."

Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross also discussed plans of the President and his family to be enumerated by a local census taker at the start of the 1960 census taking.

White House officials said Mr. Truman will make public, probably tomorrow, an explanation for the signing of the controversial farm bill. The pressure for and against it was so great, Ross said, that Mr. Truman did not reach a decision until this afternoon. There had even been reports he would veto it.

The President's position apparently is that the bill is designed to cure "certain inequities" created by last year's legislation cutting back cotton planting by 1,200,000 acres.

The subject of a long and bitter fight in the Senate, it adds 100,000 peanut acres in Texas and Alabama and permits the growing of additional peanuts for oil on about a million additional acres.

It knocks out price support for potatoes in 1951 unless marketing quotas are then in effect that would require more legislation.

Chairman Cooley, Democrat of North Carolina, of the House Agriculture Committee had telegraphed Mr. Truman:

"Your failure to sign this bill will be tragic and will be an effective weapon in the hands of the enemies of your Administration."

Senator Aiken, Republican of Vermont, on the other hand declared the President "will be exercising very good judgment if he votes it."

How To Obtain Your Coastal Bermuda Grass

For several years, agronomists of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station have been testing and increasing the supply of a Coastal Bermuda grass. According to A. W. Crain, associate extension pasture specialist of Texas A. & M. College, the supply is large enough at the present time to permit a limited distribution.

Several Milam County Farmers have indicated an interest in obtaining a small supply of the grass sprigs. Those interested may send one dollar, to cover cost of handling and sacking, to the Forage Section, Agronomy Department, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, College Station, Texas. The grass sprigs will be shipped by express collect and should be sufficient to set from 1-4 to 1-2 an acre. Due to the limited supply, those writing in are requested to ask for only one sack of material .

Crain says it should not be tried in areas that receive less than 30 inches of rainfall, unless irrigation is used. It is not a wonder grass, but he recommends giving it a trial. He says it will grow anywhere that common bermuda will grow but requires a fertile soil and more water because it produces a much higher yield. It can be used for both pasture and as a hay crop, he adds.

Along with the sack of grass sprigs will be sent information on land preparation, fertilization and care. He points out that the distribution is being made in response to the many inquiries that have been received regarding the source of planting material. Results obtained from these farm plantings will prove valuable to the agronomists in their future studies of the grass and its potential value in Texas.

DISEASE OF COTTON DISCUSSED BY AGENT

(By J. D. Moore, County Agent)

Every precaution within our means should be taken in Milam County to get the most for our allotted cotton acres in 1950, advises J. D. Moore, County Agent. Last year during the first half of July, we had intermittent showers of rain which encouraged the development of a bacterial disease called Angular Leafspot. This disease was widespread in the Yarrellton Community. The parasite causing the disease is carried over on the seed and possibly in the soil, especially if cotton was planted on the land the year before. Symptoms of the disease are watersoaked angular spots on the leaves. On the bolls, the spots are large, round and have a greenish watersoaked appearance, later turning brown or black. Spotted bolls may fail to open and the lint may be discolored. Some farmers last year thought the above symptoms were caused by insect damage. Very little can be done to control the disease after it has developed. College authorities recommend that farmers treat their cottonseed with Ceresan "M", Spergon, Dow 9-B or Chloricene to prevent this development.

Louis Stays Retired Will Join Circus Tour

WACO, March 25—Retired world's heavyweight champion Joe Louis said he would not return to the ring in an effort to regain the title held by Ezzard Charles, but would make a 94-day tour with Dailey Brothers circus at a minimum salary of $1,000 per day.

The famed Brown Bomber made his announcement at a press conference in a Waco tourist court only a few hours before he was to enter the ring for what he said probably would be his final public boxing appearance in the United States against H. K. Homer, negro boxer from Camp Hood.

"After due considerations by Marshall Miles, my manager; Manny Seamon, my trainer and myself, I will not return to the ring to try to regain the heavyweight champion of the world," Louis said in a prepared statement .

"Instead, I will make an exhibition tour through South America and on my return will join Dailey Brothers circus on May 24 for a tour of Canada."

Louis, now nearing 36 and weighing 230 pounds, said he did not want to go back to "the drudgery of a training camp," and added that his decision also had a financial angle.

He said he did not believe any promoter could afford to stage a championship bout for him since he would want "at least 35 percent of the gate" in comparison with the usual 20 percent proffered challengers.

By the time champion Ezzard Charles got his 40 percent cut and I got 35 percent, no promotor could afford to handle the bout, Louis said.

Miss Otila Kostroun is a medical patient in St. Edward Hospital.

5-State Postal Fraud Ring Ends in Killeen

Authorities mopped up a five-State postal fraud ring when they arrested an Oklahoma youth as he stepped from a downtown pool hall, inspectors said.

Government officials called him the third of a three-man gang that had been operating in the Southwest.

A complaint charging George E. Bethany, 25, of Bixby, Okla., with "raising post office money orders" was filed in Federal court in Fort Worth by wire. Bethany is being held at Belton pending arrival of a United States marshal.

First break in the case came earlier this week in Oklahoma City when officers captured two of the ring. This pair furnished information leading to the other arrest.

The ring operated in Oklahoma, New Mexico, California, Arizona, and Texas. Using fictitious names, they bought money orders for even dollars in amounts up to nine dollars and were raising the amount by adding a zero and a "ty" on the orders.

Killeen Postmaster Earl Massey and an Austin postal inspector, W. C. Hoevett, apprehended Bethany. Bethany was here visiting his brother at Camp Hood. Postal inspectors traced him through a bus ticket bought to Killeen.

Bethany was questioned and then taken to Belton.

Massey knew the car Bethany was driving and when he spotted it parked in front of the pool hall on the main street of town he sent for police.

Massey and Hoevett waited outside the billiards emporium until Bethany stepped from the doorway. Bethany offered no resistance.

The good-looking, neatly-dressed youth remained calm as he was quizzed by officials.

Adjustment For 1950 Cotton Acreage Being Accepted In Milam Co.

Alva E. Sanders, Administrative Officer of the Milam County PMA Office received a telegram April 3, 1950 to proceed with the acceptance of applications for increased cotton acreage for Milam County.

Each farm acreage allotment for 1950 shall be increased by such amount as may be necessary to provide an allotment equal to the larger of 65 per cent of the acreage planted to cotton in 1946, 1947 and 1948 or 45 per cent of the highest acreage planted to cotton on the farm in any one of such three years; but no such allotment shall be increased in excess of 40 per cent of the acreage on the farm tilled annually or in regular rotation as determined under regulations prescribed the Secretary of Agriculture.

An increase in any 1950 farm acreage allotment shall be made only upon application in writing by the Owner and Operator of the farm. A written request must be filed with the Milam County PMA Committee not later than April 28, 1950.

Any producer that has received an allotment for 1950 and is not going to seed this, the allotment should be returned to the county office in order that it may be used on farms requesting additional acreage. If such acreage is not used in 1950 the farmer not planting the acreage will loose the allotment next year, if the allotment was established on a 1946 history only. Not only will the farmer loose it but the county too will loose this acreage.

A farmer that releases his acreage for one year and decides he would like to plant cotton for 1951 would retain his allotment. Should you decide to release all or any part of your 1950 cotton allotment contact the county office immediately.

The owner or operator of any farm is permitted to file an application irrespective whether such farm appears to be entitled to an adjustment for the farm acreage allotment. In order to be eligible for any adjustment a written request on Official Form MQ-28, that was received in the County Office, April 3, 1950 must be executed.

Each Producer will be notified as soon as possible regarding his request for additional acreage under the recently enacted law.

NORTH CAMP HOOD FIRE CAUSES 2-MILLION LOSS

CAMP HOOD, March 30—A flash fire raced through two huge warehouses at the North Camp Hood installation thursday, causing damage estimated "above $2,000,000."

Giant puffs of thick, black smoke rose above the flames as metal storage drums exploded from the heat. Raymond Ward, a Gatesville fireman, said he believed the drums contained sulphur gas for use in refrigerators .

The warehouses were crammed full—crate on crate—of property owned by the post and by the State for use by the Texas National Guard.

Camp Hood is one of the nation's largest military installations and is devoted largely to armored unit training.

No ammunition was reported in the warehouses, but stacks of guns and artillery were lost in the blaze. One warehouse was full of cotton material—mattresses and bedding—that still was smouldering almost three hours after the fire began.

One officer said there were enough tents stacked in the building to outfit several divisions.

Both buildings were totally destroyed.

Officers initially estimated the damage at $3,500,000 but later scaled the figure down to $2,000,000.

Officers said they were unable to explain the cause of the blaze, which started at 2:40 p. m. Col. Thomas M. Williams, property and disbursing officer for the Texas National Guard discovered the fire.

The warehouses—one about 300 feet long, the other about half as large—were built during World War II. The larger contained six storage rooms; the smaller, four. "Fireproof" brick walls divided them into storage sections.

7 Jurors Selected For Wenck Trial

FRANKLIN, April 4—A marathon questioning of 80 men on a special venire of 100 tonight qualified seven jurors in the murder trial of 22-year-old divorcee mother Mrs. Lucille Wenck. She is accused of the shotgun ambush slaying of Hearne Chief of Police N. L. (Slick) Miller last Oct. 6.

Sheriff Bob Reeves was ordered to round up fifty more veniremen.

Questioning of the prospective jurors by defense counsel Ben Parton and Frank A. Woods strongly indicated that a plea of insanity would be made. Prosecuting Mrs. Wenck is State's Attorney Bill Palmos.

Judge W. S. Barron today held the 85th District Court in session from 9 a. m. until 6:25 p. m. in an effort to complete the jury. Only one juror had been selected in the morning hearings, according to District Clerk Morgan Harlan.

Jurors accepted are Emory Scott, Calvert; Hill Presley, Hearne, Charlie Willis, Franklin; Joe Middleton, Calvert; Jesse Gick, Calvert; Bob Jamison, Calvert, and Dewitt Barnett of Franklin.

Miller was killed by a shotgun blast from the home where Mrs. Wenck resided when he answered a disturbance call. Knox Tidwell, Hearne policeman with Miller, escaped injury Other officers were called, and after firing into the home, Mrs. Wenck surrendered.

Throughout the shooting, Mrs. Wenck's year-old son sat unperturbed and unhurt on the front porch of the home.

Miller at the time of his death had been Chief of Police for 14 months.

CHARLES L. GOODSON ESCAPES FROM JAIL

Charles Luther Goodson, 18, who was being held in the Milam County jail on charges of car theft, escaped from his cell sometime during the early morning hours on Friday.

Sheriff Carl C. Black said Goodson made his escape by prying brick from the window facing. Apparently the prisoner had no trouble making his escape by lifting away the crumbling bricks. After tearing away the bricks he made his way over the roof and down the drain pipe.

A 1940 Dodge belonging to Ben Edmonds was stolen early Friday morning and officers are confident that Goodson made his escape in it. However no information was available at this time.

The Milam County Grand Jury had indicted Goodson for the theft of a car belonging to Dr. Leland Denson. He had also been indicted by the Dallas Grand Jury on charges of car theft and is wanted in Fort Worth, Tarrant County for car theft Goodson had been held in the local jail since March 15. His home is in Dallas.

Cameron Homemakers Begin Nursery School

Last week the new nursery school in the Homemaking Department was christened by little Mike Rice, brother of Freda Rice, HM IIb student, as he visited with the girls for an hour.

And on Thursday, March 30, the third year homemaking students had as their guests, Mary Kastenbalm, age seven from the first grade, Glenn Blake, age seven from the first grade, and Nancy Wilkerson, age nine from the third grade. Refreshments which were served the children were greatly enjoyed.

The Homemaking students have been working diligently on their nursery school, and finally their dream has come true.

To top things off, the girls have also completed making sheets and a mattress covering to supplement their materials as they study the Home Furnishing Course.

Veteran's Land Program Applications Accepted Under Conditions

Although the entire $25,000,000 principal of the Veterans' Land Program was committed by March 18, Land Commissioner Bascom Giles stated today that additional applications are still being accepted "under certain conditions".

"Where both seller and veteran understand that we cannot guarantee there will be money available to complete the purchase," said Giles, "we are putting the application on file."

The $25,000,000 fund is a revolving one and thus additional purchases can be made from time to time as veterans make their semi-annual payments, Giles pointed out. Some veterans are also retiring their indebtedness at a faster rate than their contract demands. One tract in Dickens County has already been paid for in full.

"Also," Giles explained, "every withdrawal enables us to process one of the applications accepted on this conditional basis. We will act upon these new applications, if and when money is available, in the order they are received."

The down payments accompanying a "conditional" application will be deposited in the State Treasury, Giles said, and will be returned if the transaction is not completed.

No application has been accepted since March 18 except this "conditional basis", Giles stated.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Caston of Beaumont visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Faver over the week end. They also visited Mrs. Tom J. Faver who had an operation at St. Edward Hospital recently.

Mrs. H. R. Edwards of Oklahoma City arrived in Cameron Wednesday where she will spend several days visiting her mother, Mrs. J. H. McLerran and other relatives.
